Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This two-story three-bay single-pile dwelling faces west onto Solomons Island Road. It is a gable-roofed structure with a side-passage-parlor plan. Set on brick piers, it has a central stove flue and two-over-two double-hung-sash windows. There is a one-story screened porch sheltering the facade and another one-story screened porch on the south side of the two-story two-bay rear ell. This house dates from the turn of the century. It has been changed very little.
